TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

This is to confirm that we have been utilizing the Recruitment Services of QS Quest over the past two years. We are currently still using them for the recruitment of junior and senior staff for our operations at Head Office level and our two associated companies.

We have been dealing in particular with Mr. Tony Dods and also some of his staff in his office to our satisfaction.

Dealing with QS Quest has always been a pleasure because of their professional and prompt approach in handling our recruitment needs. We intend to utilize their services again in the future and would recommend their valuable services to other companies.
